

A COMMITMENT TO CENTRING CARE

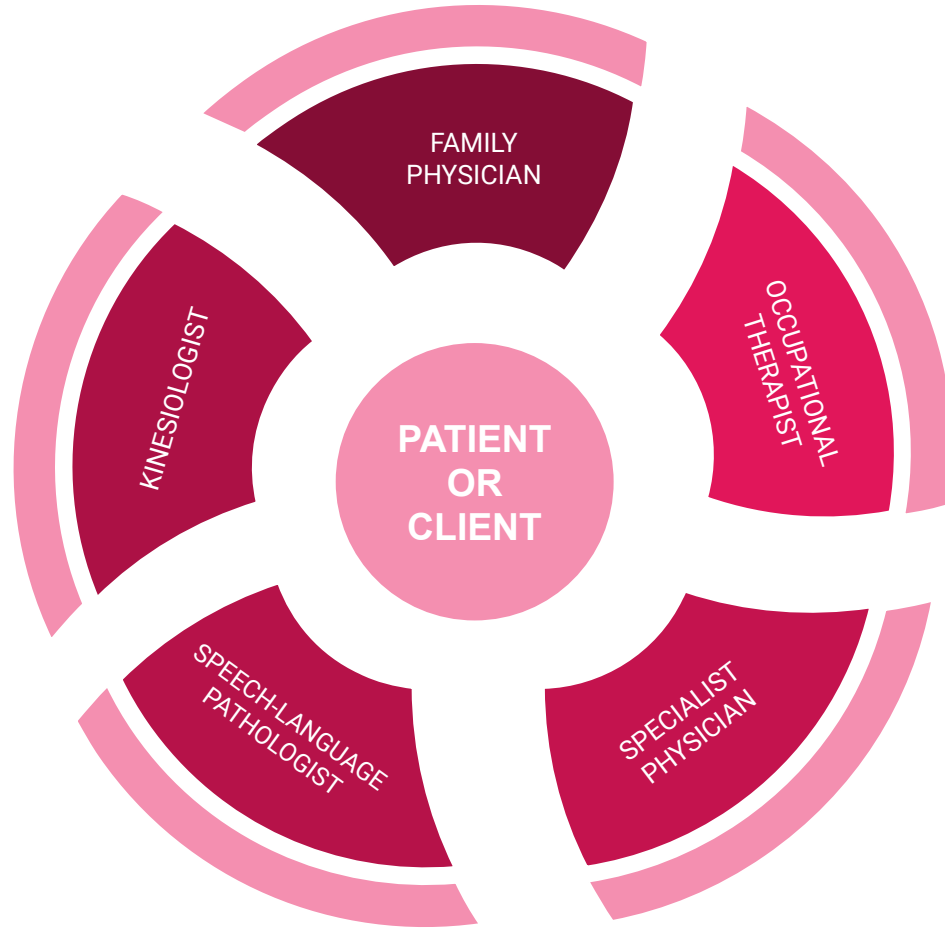

Group 46: Ali Jatoi (Medicine), Julia Mercado (Kinesiology),
Buffy Chen (Occupational Therapy), Claire Livingstone (SLP),
Mentor: Stephen

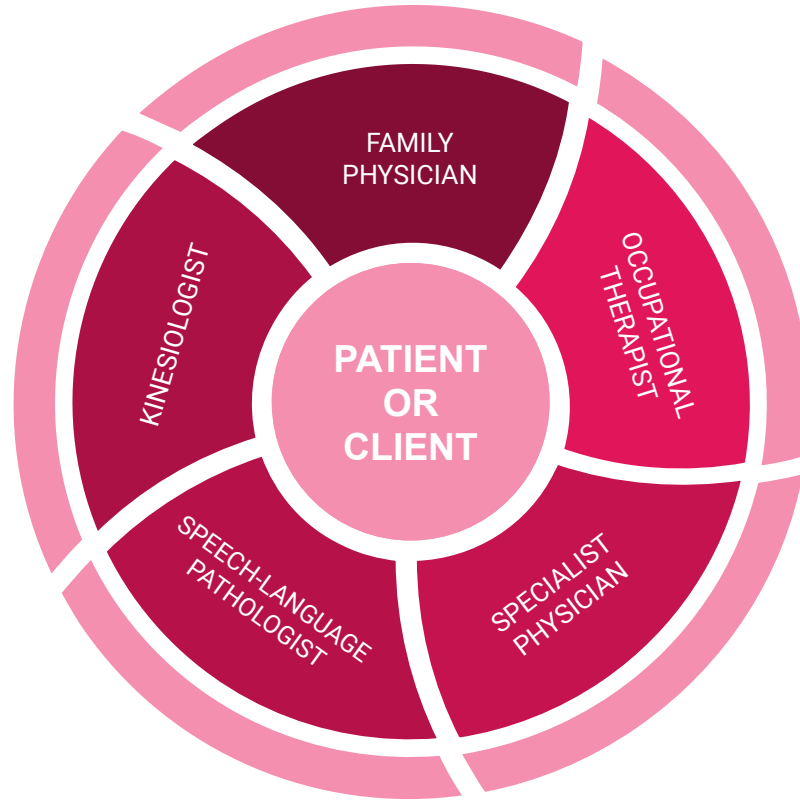

Tweet:

“For care to be truly patient-centred, collaboration amongst HCPs must be complemented by a health information system that records and shares relevant patient information in an effective manner; without such a system, the cost of ineffective information sharing is inadequate care”

thanks Ali,

So taking this into account, our group has reflected and we came up with three commitments on how we would like to move forward

1. to continue learning about other professions
2. to participate in interprofessional programs/events
3. to advocate for system level change to benefit our patients and clients

Thank you for listening to our presentation, and we're going to move into the question period now

OUR THREE COMMITMENTS

- 1. TO CONTINUE LEARNING ABOUT OTHER PROFESSIONS
 - 2. TO PARTICIPATE IN INTERPROFESSIONAL EVENTS/PROGRAMS (LIKE HMP!)
 - 3. TO ADVOCATE FOR SYSTEMS-LEVEL CHANGE TO BENEFIT OUR PATIENTS & CLIENTS
